INSTRUCTIONS FOR MAIL-IN REGISTRANTS AND FIRST-TIME VOTERS

If you registered to vote by mail after January 1, 2003, did not submit a copy of an identifying document with the application, or did not provide an identifying document to the municipal clerk before election day and are voting in an election for the first time in Wisconsin,

YOU ARE REQUIRED TO:

Present an identifying document containing the following information to the election inspectors before being allowed to vote:

- your complete name, including both the given and family name,

AND

- your current and complete residential address, including a numbered street address, if any, and the name of the municipality.

An identifying document is limited to the following:

a current and valid operator's license or identification card issued by the Department of Transportation an official identification card or license issued by a Wisconsin governmental body or unit.

An official identification card or license issued by an employer that includes a photograph of the cardholder or license holder, excluding a business card.

A property tax bill or receipt for the current or preceding year.

a current utility bill,
a bank statement,

a pay check, or
a government check or document.

A college identification card that includes a photograph of the cardholder. This may be used as an identifying document even if it does not contain the cardholder's address, if the educational institution provides a certified student list for use at the polling place.

If you do not present the required form of identification, you may follow the procedures for registering to vote on Election Day or you may vote a provisional ballot.

EB-116 (Rev. 6/2006) This information is required by HAVA, Section 303 (b) and Section 6.34(3), Wis. Stats.
